(2) The following is the fee to be paid for admission to the examination: for each test or branch of a test No. 5. * No fee will be levied for Tests D (iv) and E.

(3) Applications for admission to the examinations shall be made on printed forms to be had at the office of the Board of Examiners and from all Assistant Commissioners. These applications should reach the Office of the Board of Examiners not later than the 30th April and 1st October.

(4) Subject to such regulations as may be imposed by the President, Board of Examiners, in a time-table to be published half-yearly, candidates shall be at liberty to come up for any one or more of the tests at the same time.

(5) Candidates may present themselves for the Higher grade examination in all the tests subject previously passing by the Lower grade. Should they fail to pass, but obtain the number of marks prescribed for the Lower grade, they will be deemed to have passed by the Lower grade, and will be allowed to appear again, at any subsequent examination, for the Higher grade on payment of the prescribed fee.

(6) The examinations in each test shall be by means of written papers except when otherwise specified and shall be conducted entirely in the English language. The questions shall be so framed as to test the candidate's possession of a general acquaintance with the subjects of examination. The papers in Tests B (i) and (ii), F and G will be arranged in two parts—one dealing with the general principles of law and practice contained in the Act and Search prescribed, to be answered without books, and the other dealing with details, in answering which the aid of books shall be allowed. Candidates will also be allowed the use of books in answering the paper set for Test B (iii).

(7) The Regulations, Codes and Acts promulgated under any law shall be subject to modification or otherwise at any time to be made according as the law may be changed or Government may deem, and modifications will be expected to be accompanied with all such amendments, provided they have been published or notified not later than six months prior to the date of the amendment.

(8) The test-books to be examined for Test B are:—(a) branch (i) Colloquies on Surveying and Levelling by Mr. D. C. Bhatnagar, Banarsi, and the Department of Education for the Government of India. Candidates on branch (i) at this test will be required to examine and plot a simple survey and also to run, and draw the section of, an easy line of levels. The examination in this branch will be conducted by a local committee composed of an officer of the Public Works Department not lower in rank than a supervisor and of an Assistant Commissioner or other superior officer of the Salt, Mineral and Customs Department who will determine the first and second order of examination. Two-thirds of full marks must be obtained for success in this branch.

134 The examination in Test E will be conducted by a Deputy Commissioner as an Assistant Commissioner with the assistance of a selected officer of any department with a sufficient knowledge of the language of the examination. Candidates appearing for the examination in Hindi will be examined in the form of a written examination. The examination must give sufficient knowledge or summary of spelling or etymology of words as required, but the languages must be spoken, read and written fluently and intelligibly. The examination of candidates for their own vernacular will, in most cases, be a formal one, but it shall be assumed that they can read a vernacular book.

INTERMEDIATE EXAMINATION IN ARTS AND SCIENCE, MARCH 1922.

[Note.—Names in italics denote female candidates.]

LIST I.

The following is the list of candidates who appeared for the whole examination and passed in both parts:—

(1) Applications for certificates of having passed the examination must reach the Examiners not later than the 1st September next. A fee of Rs. 2 will be charged for each certificate issued on application received after that date. Each application should be accompanied by a declaration from a responsible officer of Government or the Principal of a High School or College certifying the applicant with the said date desired to have passed the examination. This certificate will be issued, after the 1st September next, to the person who identifies the candidate.

(2) The Matriculation certificate, if any, and the Intermediate attendance certificate of those candidates will not be returned in any circumstances.]
